Privacy Policy

L.O.T. 2540 is committed to maintaining the confidentiality, integrity and security of personal information entrusted to us by current donors, potential donors and by the officers and staff of nonprofit agencies who approach us for support, and the people that they serve.

Like all organizations with an online web presence, L.O.T. 2540 receives standard tracking data when you visit our site. Information from your browser, including your IP address, pages visited, the length of time you spend on our site and files you download is recorded in our website server logs. We use and analyze this data to develop site content and continue to provide you with a positive experience when you visit our website. However, no personal information is collected during the tracking process.

Online giving transactions are processed on a secure server. We have put into effect appropriate procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online. Once you provide us with personal, professional or financial information, that data remains confidential.

We will not sell, rent, loan or otherwise share any personally identifying information you provide with any individual or organization. If users tell us that they do not wish to have this information used as a basis for further contact, we will respect those wishes. While we strive to protect the personal information of our users, L.O.T. 2540 will release personal information if required by law or in the good-faith belief that such action is necessary or appropriate.

In accordance with federal law and the guidelines set up by the Federal Trade Commission regarding youth privacy, L.O.T. 2540 will not knowingly collect any personal information from young people under the age of 13.

By using our site, you consent to our privacy policy. L.O.T. 2540 reserves the right to change this Policy at any time without notice. Changes will be posted on this website.

If there are any questions regarding this privacy policy, you may contact us at: 336.447.3873 or info@lot2540.com.
